

How to write an Orange

Let's start with sentences!

Do you go absolutely Bonkers (going crazy)
when you are asked to write a sentence?

Does your pencil seem to grow and grow until it weighs a ton?

Are you barely able to think?

Bring your brain!

Get your supplies in order

(pen, paper, computer, txt msg, etc.)

Where do you go now?

For starters.....Think ORANGE

Using "short" words, list three things you already know about an orange.

Your list might look like this:

tastes good

must peel to eat

bumpy skin

Now S T R E T C H those words to make three sentences

1

A cold orange tastes good on a hot summer day.

2

An orange has a bumpy skin that smells good.

3

You must peel an orange to eat it.

Don't forget to use a

Capital letter at the beginning of each sentence and a punctuation mark at the end!

Let's review the Orange Method for Sentence Writing!

Begin by listing what you know -- use short words

STRETCH your short words into good sentences