

Arizona Rt. 66

Hi. I'm Korean and a Kyung-Hee University student. I want to introduce Rt. 66 in Arizona and California. This is what I think university age students would like to do along Rt. 66 in Arizona.

First of all, the old road passes the Deer Farm, which is a petting zoo filled with many species of deer, llamas, reindeer, burros, exotic birds, and other animals. You can pet and feed the animals.

Second, one of the coolest Route 66 haunts is Julien's Roadrunner which sells Indian jewelry and is associated with a Rt. 66 memorial. Maybe you can buy souvenirs to make your own memory of Rt. 66.

I also recommend that you visit Grand Canyon Caverns. This is near, but not connected to the Grand Canyon. Of course, using the name "Grand Canyon" is good marketing and does pull visitors off the road to visit and spend money in the Caverns.

These are the three places I recommend to university students traveling Rt. 66 in Arizona. Do you want a special trip? Then go to Rt. 66 in Arizona. Get your kicks on Rt. 66!
